I honestly felt bad for him. He can be pretty weird sometimes, but he's a good, good dude. We were in the last inning and we had the bases loaded, the defense, he stood there, he stood there, and he walked me. I couldn't believe it. And I was like, "Are you serious?" I think it was like the 5th inning. He was cool. He walked me. I said, "Man, it's gonna be a complete game for me," and he was like, "Cool. Have fun." I've never had anyone walk me. Maybe Joe Torre or Tony Gwynn, but not somebody like Bobby Cox. The students enjoyed their days in the forest.
