I was wondering if anyone knew how it was generated? If so, the challenge would be to do the same for the larger numbers (8,9,10...). Thanks. A: This is actually a variation of Braille 4. There were much more variants than these ones, and I'm sure some were more complex. Here are the rules for this one. 2 rules The first one is to divide the current number by 2. This will be the guide to the left of the braille lines.

Rzepiennik Leszczyński () is a town in Łomża County, Podlaskie Voivodeship, Poland, with 9,742 inhabitants (2004). History The settlement is located in the southern part of the Masuria region, in the very border with Warmia. The town was first mentioned in 1369, in the document entitled a

Deeds, in which it is designated as the property of the chapter of Radymy of Diocese of Wilno (Vilnius) (Rzeszow rights are also mentioned there). The documents also mention that the town was fief of the Prince-Bishop of Włocławek, granted to the Teutonic Order. In the 18th century the town was an administrative center of the property of the Sponheim family, successors of Prince Janusz Zamoyski. In 1772 the town was annexed to the Russian Empire, and in 1813 it became part of the Grand Duchy of Warsaw, part of the Congress Poland. In 1828 the town was annexed by the Duchy of Warsaw, and in 1859 - by the Kingdom of Prussia. In 1871-1919 the city was part of Germany, then part of Poland again, until 1939. During World War II the town was located on the Warta river.

After the war it was incorporated into the Polish People's Republic, and in 1975 it became a town again.
