Ryan Reynolds starred as a wise-cracking 15-year-old and his older brother Mark as his best friend and sidekick, spending their lives dealing with their latest adventure. Ryan Reynolds, Ben Garant and Robert Ben Garant will develop the DC Comics comedy, with Melissa Cobb and Burk Sharpless executive producing. The project — which was written by Joe Pokaski, who's also set to be the showrunner — centers on the lives of wisecracking siblings Rex and Ray Stentroid who "recruited" their best friend, Devon, to battle a nerd terrorist. Their plans go awry when they accidentally unleash super-powered villains on the world. Reynolds starred in the 2011 sleeper hit "The Green Lantern" and will star in the upcoming "Deadpool" franchise. Mark appeared in
